Dear Parent(s),

Those of you not new to the school have just heard from me with the reports, so I will keep this communication relatively short! Several years ago, the Girls' Rugby team very nicely gave me a 'thank you' plaque for coaching them and they quoted something that they'd heard me say a number of times: "You're only as good as your next game." That phrase is in my head as we bring another superb school year to a close.

We're still too close to the wrapping up of that old school year to expound too enthusiastically about the new one just yet, but we will be energized anew by the time the end of August comes along! Our "next game", as it were, will begin around then and, just before that, we will go into full planning and preparation mode so that we can be absolutely ready to create another succession of magical moments and quality experiences.

I trust that the summer months will bring you some fun and relaxation at some point. For my part I can already smell the Barbecue, not to mention hear the clink of ice-cubes on glass! My warmest regards,

Yours sincerely,
